

I am worried about the weakening of the State law by the FCC for the no call listing. The interruptions and abuse taken by these calls is not wanted and should be blocked. Our current state law does that and allows for the charity and current business partners to be able to call, just not anyone for anything. The national should do so much.